

ACTIVITY REPORT

The representatives of the IBSSA Anti Human Trafficking Bureau Serbia, in the period from July to October 2022, successfully implemented a campaign called "DOES LIFE HAVE A PRICE" in which we carried out three different campaigns on the topic of the fight against human trafficking in three different cities in the Republic of Serbia and on the topic of development and establishment of better cooperation between state authorities and civil society organizations.

Besides the representatives from city Kruševac, Čačak and Niš administrations, representatives from social service centers, representatives of the Red Cross, labor control services in the Republic of Serbia, the campaign was also supported by representatives of the Ministry of Social Affairs, the Ministry of Human and Minority Rights and Social Dialogue, representatives of the National Academy for public administration, representatives of the Center for Victims of Human Trafficking, as well as local and national media. The campaign brought together over 150 participants and partners from various structures of society interested in supporting such activities.

We express our special gratitude for the successfully implemented campaign to professors Hatidza Beriša, Ibra Ibrahimović and Tanja Vojvodić, representatives of the IBSSA Anti Human Trafficking Bureau in the Republic of Serbia.
